

Basic Course 5: Planning, Space and Resources

About the course

subject	Den internationale samfundsvidenskabelige bacheloruddannelse
Activity type	Basic course
Teaching language	English
Registration	Students at SIB 2nd semester will be registered for the course automatically Detailed description of content	Planning, Space and resources is an interdisciplinary course which is concerned with how social worlds and social phenomena are expressed and organized spatially, while being simultaneously subject to resource-related, environmental and planning-related restrictions and conditions. An introduction to fundamental theoretical discussions and related concepts, such as space, (politics of) place, rights, (community) planning, livelihood, resource management, nature-culture and sustainability, will be provided. Empirically, examples from around the world will be included and cover rural as well as urban settings.
