Registration	Tilmelding sker via stads selvbetjening indenfor annonceret tilmeldingsperiode, som du kan se på Studieadministrationens hjemmeside Når du tilmelder dig kurset, skal du være opmærksom på, om der er sammenfald i tidspunktet for kursusafholdelse og eksamen med andre kurser, du har valgt. Uddannelsesplanlægningen tager udgangspunkt i, at det er muligt at gennemføre et anbefalet studieforløb uden overlap. Men omkring valgfrie elementer og studieplaner som går ud over de anbefalede studieforløb, kan der forekomme overlap, alt efter hvilke kurser du vælger. Registration is happing through stads selvbetjeningwithin the announced registration period, as you can see on the Studyadministration homepage. When registering for courses, please be aware of the potential conflicts between courses or exam dates on courses. The planning of course activities at Roskilde University is based on the recommended study programs which do not overlap. However, if you choose optional courses and/ or study plans that goes beyond the recommended study programs, an overlap of lectures or exam dates may occur depending on which courses you choose.
Project Process	The internship encompasses: ● A maximum of 400 hours, included both the internship and the internship project report. ● The writing of an internship project report, the object of which is for the students to demonstrate the ability to reflect on their stay with the company and the skills they have applied there. It must be possible to use the report to discuss the experience students have acquired through the internship – in contrast to their abstract and analytical work with similar issues during their studies. The project report must refer to the overall academic topic of the semester. The internship must be approved by the Study Board. Prior to commencing the internship, the student must seek advance approval for the host company. In its processing of the application, the Study Board must ensure that the student, through the project-oriented internship, achieves academic competencies that in scope and level correspond to the competencies that can be achieved through the ordinary study programme. If the application is approved, the Head of Studies will assign a supervisor. Guidance is provided to students during the actual internship.
Course material and Reading list	Internship projects are normally examined individually. The same rules apply as for an ordinary semester project.

Overall content

The aim of the internship is for the student to acquire professional insights and skillsin working with methodological and theoretical issues related to innovation management and innovation processes and to also acquire professional competences in relation to concrete work tasks in a private or public sector business, organisation or association. The objectives are fulfilled by the student preparing an internship project to demonstrate their ability to work independently scientifically with the organisation and management of innovation in a business and to reflect on the theory and methodology in relation to the job function that the student has had in the business/organisation. In the project report, the students must describe and document the academically relevant elements of the research questions and work tasks they have been allocated and reflect upon the practices that have been observedin the field, the student'a own learning and the relationship between practice and theory within the field.

Teaching and working methods

An internship consists of:

- A maximum of 400 hours, including both the internship and the internship project report
- The preparation of an internship project report, theo bject of wich is for the student to demonstrate the ability to reflect upon their internship in the business/organisation and the qualifications they have used in the process. It must be possible to use the report to discuss the practical experience the student has gained through the internship - as opposed to working abstractly and analytically with similar research questions during their academic studies. The project report must refer to the overall academic subject area of the semester.

The internship must be approved by the Board of studies. Before the start of the internship, the student must apply for pre-approval of the Internship host. When processing the application, the Board of Studies must ensure that the student will gain professional competences from the project-oriented internship which, in terms of scope and level, match the competences that could be gained from the ordinary study programme. If the application is approved, the Head of Studies will assign a supervisor. The students will be offered supervision during the internship.
