Registration	You register for activities through stads selvbetjening during the announced registration period, which you can see on the Study administration homepage. When registering for courses, please be aware of the potential conflicts and overlaps between course and exam time and dates. The planning of course activities at Roskilde University is based on the recommended study programmes, which should not overlap. However, if you choose optional courses and/or study plans that goes beyond the recommended study programmes, an overlap of lectures or exam dates may occur depending on which courses you choose.
Detailed description of content	The course covers the key theories and debates within the interdisciplinary approach to international political economy. The theories are juxtaposed with and lead to reflection on central regulatory initiatives in relation to the focus areas of international political economy. The first three sessions of the course cover six different theoretical perspectives including liberalism, neoliberalism, economic nationalism, green IPE, Dependency theory and Global Value Chains. These approaches will then be used to examine and discuss different sets of issues such as global production networks, trade, labour, the environment, the financial crisis, global development and aid.
